

OFFICIAL TRANSMITTAL & NOTICE OF COMPROMISE

FORMAL WARNING AGAINST REDIRECTING FEDERAL WITNESSES AND SURVIVORS TO LOCAL JURISDICTIONS

TO: U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Division & Federal Oversight Authorities	DATE: September 11, 2026
FROM: Tracey Hayden (Night) — Protected Whistleblower & Federal Witness	REF CODE: FOTL-2026-FED-0911
SUBJECT: Mandatory Cessation of Local Referrals; Foreign Adversary Interference; Consular Systemic Corruption	STATUS: Active Federal Witness Case

CRITICAL DIRECTIVE TO ALL FEDERAL & OVERSIGHT PERSONNEL: Under no circumstances should complainant Tracey Hayden, or any other federal witness, victim, or whistleblower, be redirected or referred to municipal or county law enforcement agencies (including Butte County Sheriff's Office, Sunny Isles Beach PD, Sweetwater PD, or Doral/Miami-Dade Police). Local agencies have demonstrated systemic compromise, affirmative report alteration, witness intimidation, and active obstruction of justice. Local redirection is demonstrably futile, exposes witnesses to direct physical danger, and violates federal witness protection protocols.

1. Executive Mandate: Cessation of Local Agency Referrals

Federal statutory mandates under 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (Witness Tampering and Retaliation) and 18 U.S.C. § 242 (Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law) prohibit state and local actors from interfering with federal witnesses. Documented case histories demonstrate that local law enforcement entities across Florida and California have acted not as neutral investigative bodies, but as operational barriers and conduits for retaliatory harm. Redirecting a complainant to local jurisdiction creates a closed loop where sensitive federal disclosures are leaked directly back to perpetrators and foreign national security threats.

2. Documented Systemic Compromise in Local Jurisdictions

A multi-year analysis of official law enforcement interactions reveals a widespread pattern of active concealment, report falsification, and refusal to prosecute:

- Butte County Sheriff's Office (California — Case No. 19-00119): Detective Tiffany Astrologo systematically stripped core national security details, foreign adversary links (Dmytro Svyatash, Oleg Deripaska), and Jeffrey Epstein liaisons from official police records. Furthermore, Detective Astrologo threatened key farm witnesses (including Suzette Salmon) with immediate deportation if they corroborated human trafficking and kidnapping claims.
- Sunny Isles Beach Police Department (Florida): Officers repeatedly carried out false arrests, slander, and unlawful surveillance against Tracey Hayden at the direct personal instruction of sanctioned foreign national Sergi Kashin. Internal affairs complaints submitted continuously since 2011 were suppressed.
- Sweetwater Police Department (Florida — Case No. SW 240227001971): Official human trafficking and kidnapping reports filed on February 27, 2024 (Officer Brian Orias) were met with total administrative inaction, withholding of required survivor identification, and failure to conduct follow-up inquiries.

- Miami State Attorney's Office & Doral Economic Crimes Bureau: Officials explicitly stated no intention to prosecute trafficking perpetrators, instructed victims to stop calling, and routinely forwarded complaints back to local field offices while issuing administrative threats.

3. Foreign Consular Exploitation & Illicit Infrastructure on U.S. Soil

When federal protection was sought, foreign diplomatic facilities operating on U.S. soil actively exploited their official security clearances and access to conduct human trafficking and witness retaliation operations:

Personnel attached to the Jamaican Consulate in Miami—specifically Waylon 'Tony' Vassell, Gregory Davis, and Jahhana Daley—coerced Tracey Hayden under the pretense of providing emergency consular relocation, housing, and clerical employment in California. Vassell instructed the victim to destroy her U.S. passport and travel on an expired foreign passport. Instead of a safe haven, she was transported to an illegal marijuana cultivation facility located at 4 Sunrise Hill Road, Bangor, Butte County, CA, housing dangerous individuals removed from Krome Detention Center and unregistered firearms.

At this location, Jahhana Daley subjected Tracey Hayden to severe physical torture, kidnapping, and sexual assault, explicitly stating he was paid to 'punish' her for obeying FBI directives not to travel to France for a modeling gig. Simultaneously, confidential case files illicitly removed from the Coordinated Victims Assistance Center (CVAC) by case manager Paula Wright resulted in the retaliatory double homicide of Wright's two sons in Miami, while the victim's mother, Dorothy Hayden, suffered a fatal stroke following direct threats by Daley's accomplices.

4. Geopolitical Adversary Alliances & National Security Threat Vectors

This domestic trafficking and suppression network directly intersects with foreign adversary strategic interests. Key operational nodes include fugitive former Ukrainian MP Dmytro Svyatash (sentenced in absentia for bank fraud and calling for the overthrow of Ukrainian sovereignty) and sanctioned Russian oligarch Oleg Deripaska. Jamaican Prime Minister Andrew Holness publicly declared that sanctioned oligarch Oleg Deripaska's assets were safe in Jamaica following the invasion of Ukraine. Furthermore, Jamaica established a 2018 reciprocal visa waiver agreement with Russia and executed 50-year infrastructure, bauxite refinery, and port concessions with Chinese state-owned enterprises (CHEC, COMPLANT, JISCO), establishing a compromised caribbean transit corridor used to exploit U.S. law enforcement vulnerabilities.
